

A Parallel Adaptive Finite Element Scheme with Applications to Quantum Chemistry

Aihui Zhou

In this presentation, we will introduce a parallel adaptive finite element scheme for a class of eigenvalue problems and apply the scheme to compute electronic structures. And we will report several numerical experiments in quantum chemistry. This talk is based on some joint work with X. Dai, X. Gong, D. Mao, L. Shen, and D. Zhang.