

”Densities for solutions of stochastic PDEs”

Marco Romito (U Pisa)

Abstract: We present a general method to prove existence and minimal regularity of the density with respect to the Lebesgue measure of solutions of stochastic differential equations with non-smooth coefficients. We give some examples of application to suitable finite dimensional functionals of solutions of stochastic PDEs.